Miller (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Present: Representatives Miller, Lennon, Oliver, Dorn, Pelly, and Curtin. Staff members present: Paul S. Bauer, special consultant to the subcommittee, and Frances Still, assistant clerk. Mr. Miller. The committee will be in order. For over a year our Special Subcommittee on Oceanography has been conducting an extensive study of oceanographic potential of the United States. The study has been carried out through public hearings, attendance at numerous meetings, and visits to oceanographic institutions. The subcommittee's work has centered around the splendid report of the Committee on Oceanography of the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council. I think it is fair
